ARCHITECTURE, ARTS, PHOTOGRAPHY AND DESIGN

Te Manu Huna a Tāne The Hidden Bird of Tāne

This special photo book documents a wānanga in which three generations of women from Ngāti Torehina ki Matakā learn the customary practice of pelting North Island brown kiwi so their feathers can be used for weaving.

NEW Published: March 2020 ISBN: 9780995123069
Editor: Jenny Gillam
Hardback: 220 x 190mm. 88 pages. $45

Sing New Zealand: The story of choral music in Aotearoa

The first history of a significant aspect of New Zealand's culture. Describing New Zealand's choral music trajectory, from the amateur efforts of the nineteenth century to today's internationally renowned choirs, it's a story about striving for excellence — and achieving it.

NEW Published: November 2019 ISBN: 9780995100152
Author: Guy E. Jansen
Flexibind: 240 x 168mm. 384 pages. $59.99

Finding Frances Hodgkins

When Frances Hodgkins first left New Zealand in 1901, location became key to her success as an artist. In this engaging book, featuring over 70 artworks, Mary Kisler follows in Hodgkins' footsteps through England, France, Italy, Morocco, Spain and Wales to discover the locations in which she pushed her exploration of modernism.

Published: May 2019 ISBN: 9780995102972
Author: Mary Kisler
Flexibind: 200 x 148mm. 432 pages. $45

Gretchen Albrecht: Between gesture and geometry

Gretchen Albrecht CNZM is one of New Zealand's most influential painters. This comprehensive survey reveals a painter steeped in art history, drawing freely from a range of influences to create vivid, intellectually persuasive and deeply affecting pieces, and determined to push her work in new directions. This magnificent book both interrogates Albrecht's work and celebrates her accomplishments.

Published: April 2019 ISBN: 9780995109513

Author: Luke Smythe

Hardback: 240 x 295mm. 304 pages. $80

John Scott Works

A rich tribute to the work and cultural significance of one of New Zealand's most influential but least well-documented architects. Over 40 projects, from Scott's famous Futuna Chapel and the Werry House to the Aniwanuiwa Visitor Centre and the Martin House, are beautifully photographed by David Straight. With essays by Douglas Lloyd Jenkins, Hana Scott, Bill McKay and Julia Gatley, and Gregory O'Brien.

Published: March 2019 ISBN: 9780995109520

Author: David Straight

Hardback: 255 x 200mm. 336 pages. $70

Auckland Architecture: A walking guide

In this handy pocket guide, architecture writer John Walsh teams up with photographer Patrick Reynolds to offer a self-guided walking tour of 50 significant Auckland buildings, from Britomart to Ponsonby and from the Victorian era to the twenty-first century. The sparkling and informative text is accompanied by maps for each of the six routes.

Published: February 2019 ISBN: 9780995113534

Authors: John Walsh and Patrick Reynolds

Limpbound: 178 x 119mm. 136 pages. $19.99

The New Zealand Horse

A magnificent tribute to the New Zealand horse, documenting its pivotal role in the development of the early colony, in farming, transport, war, sport and in our affections. Warmly and expertly written, and including a range of historical images, this magnificent book is brought to startling life by the astounding photographs of Jane Ussher.

Longlisted for the 2019 Ockham New Zealand Book Awards

Published: November 2018 ISBN: 9780995102927

Authors: Deborah Coddington and Jane Ussher

Hardback: 275 x 230mm. 392 pages. $90

Theo Schoon: A biography

Émigré artist Theo Schoon's unorthodox life intersected with important cultural periods and places. Through his art and his advocacy, he helped shape a new idea of what it was to be a New Zealander. This superb biography examines Schoon's claims on the development of art and culture in Aotearoa in the twentieth century.

Published: November 2018 ISBN: 9780995100176

Author: Damian Skinner

Flexibind: 230 x 190mm. 336 pages. $59.99

Wanted: The modernist murals of E. Mervyn Taylor

Mervyn Taylor was one of the most celebrated New Zealand artists of the 1930s to 1960s. In this fascinating and beautiful book, bursting with archival material, Bronwyn Holloway-Smith details the detective hunt for his murals and tells the stories of their creation.

Finalist at the 2019 Ockham New Zealand Book Awards

Published: March 2018 ISBN: 9780994141552

Editor: Bronwyn Holloway-Smith

Hardback: 250 x 210mm. 256 pages. $79.99

BIOGRAPHY AND MEMOIR

One Minute Crying Time

This vivid memoir by New Zealand actor and novelist Barbara Ewing covers her tumultuous childhood, adolescence and young-adulthood in Wellington and Auckland in the 1950s and early 1960s. Evocative, candid and brave, this entrancing book takes us to a long-ago New Zealand and to enduring truths about love.

NEW Published: April 2020 ISBN: 9780995122956
Author: Barbara Ewing
Limpbound: 210 x 138mm. 336 pages. $39.99

Song for Rosaleen

A beautifully crafted portrait of a family coping with their mother's dementia, this book is both a celebration of Rosaleen Desmond's life and an unflinching account of the practical and ethical dilemmas that faced her six children. Told with love, insight and humour, it raises important questions about who we become when our memories fail.

Longlisted for the 2019 Ockham New Zealand Book Awards

Published: April 2018 ISBN: 9780995100121
Author: Pip Desmond
Limpbound: 198 x 129mm. 256 pages. $29.99

Dear Oliver

Peter Wells' family experienced the war against Te Kooti, the Boer War, the Napier earthquake of 1931 and the Depression. In digging deep into their stories, examining letters from the past and writing a letter to the future, he constructs a novel and striking way to view the history of Pākehā New Zealanders.

Longlisted for the 2019 Ockham New Zealand Book Awards

Published: March 2018 ISBN: 9780994147363
Author: Peter Wells
Limpbound: 210 x 138mm. 336 pages. $39.99

A Nurse on the Edge of the Desert

International humanitarian-aid nurse and New Zealander Andrew Cameron is the winner of the coveted Florence Nightingale Medal. In this gripping book he recounts his remarkable life nursing in some of the world's most dangerous and challenging locations.

CHILDREN'S

Aspiring

A wonderfully surprising YA novel from one of New Zealand's most significant writers. Over several months, as 16-year-old Ricky bicycles through his South Island town and his daily round, we bear witness to his friendships, the trial and hilarity of school, the mystery of Mr Le Clair and his Cadillac, and the truth of his small family's sadness.

NEW Published: March 2020
ISBN: 9780995122949 Author: Damien Wilkins
Limpbound: 210 x 138mm. 200 pages. $22

Three Kiwi Tales

Award-winning author Janet Hunt follows up her highly successful How to Mend a Kea with more fabulous fix-it stories from Massey's Wildbase Hospital. Children, their whānau and teachers will love following three kiwi — Rarotoka, Piwi and Latitude, a Haast tokoeka chick — as the expert vets and nurses heal them and get them ready to go back out into the wild.

NEW Published: November 2019 ISBN: 9780995100145
Author: Janet Hunt
Limpbound: 260 x 215mm. 48 pages. $24.99

#Tumeke!

There's going to be a Waitangi Day party in the local park of a busy inner-city neighbourhood and you wouldn't believe all the amazing goings-on. Stuffed with stories, big personalities, surprising friendships and intrigue, this multi-media narrative is a book for our times. Told through texts, Instagram posts, emails, fliers, posters, diary entries, blog posts, chatrooms, school homework, raps and the reliably bonkers community noticeboard.

NEW Published: October 2019 ISBN: 9780994141576

Author: Michael Petherick

Limpbound: 248 x 200mm. 160 pages. $30

Hazel and the Snails

Six-year-old Hazel tends her colony of shoebox snails while observing, with varying degrees of understanding, her father's illness and final decline. Impending loss forms the heart of this story, but it's charming and funny, too. Nan Blanchard's assured eye is a rare quality in a new writer; seldom has the world of a young child been so delicately or acutely observed. This is a debut novel destined to become a classic.

Published: March 2019 ISBN: 9780995113589

Author: Nan Blanchard

Limpbound: 198 x 140mm. 108 pages. $22

Limpbound: 195 x 250mm. 320 pages. $75

HISTORY AND MILITARY HISTORY

Tooth and Veil

Established in 1921, the School Dental Service was charged with waging war on our nation's poor teeth. Through interviews with dental nurses from across the decades, this lively social history tells the story of the young women on the front line of this unique social experiment. Accompanied by over 150 illustrations.

NEW Published: April 2020 ISBN: 9780995122963

Author: Noel O'Hare

Limpbound: 195 x 250mm. 256 pages. $49.99

The Home Front

While New Zealand soldiers dug into their trenches, back home major issues divided the nation, including conscription; the treatment of conscientious objectors, Germans and other 'enemy aliens'; and censorship. Then, in the Great War's last months, the influenza pandemic struck. This fresh history examines a new and uncertain Dominion at war.

NEW Published: November 2019 ISBN: 9780995100183

Authors: Steven Loveridge and James Watson

Hardback: 250 x 190mm. 520 pages. $59.99

Soldiers, Scouts & Spies

A pivotal period in our history, the New Zealand Wars changed the country forever, yet there is often little understanding of how they were fought. This book explains the battles in detail, with a focus on the role of intelligence in decisions about tactics, weapons, logistics and fortifications, highlighting themes that tie the campaigns together.

NEW Published: October 2019 ISBN: 9780995109575
Author: Cliff Simons
Limpbound: 230 x 163mm. 432 pages. $55

For King and Other Countries

Over 10,000 New Zealanders fought in WW1 in the Australian Imperial Force, with British army units, the Indian army, the Canadian Expeditionary Force, the French Foreign Legion, and other nations' medical organisations. In this volume in the official Centenary History Programme series, Glyn Harper tells their remarkable stories for the first time.

Published: April 2019 ISBN: 9780995102996
Author: Glyn Harper
Hardback: 250 x 190mm. 376 pages. $59.99

With Them Through Hell

The thousands of New Zealand men who fought in WW1 went through hell; beside them was another fighting force, armed with scalpels and bandages. This beautifully illustrated book tells the remarkable story of the hundreds of medical personnel who cared for the sick and wounded, often at great personal risk.

Finalist at the 2019 Ockham New Zealand Book Awards

Published: October 2018 ISBN: 9780995100190
Author: Anna Rogers
Hardback: 250 x 190mm. 496 pages. $65

The Battle for North Africa

In the early years of WWII, Germany shocked the world with a devastating blitzkrieg. Leading war historian Glyn Harper dives into the story, vividly narrating the events, strategies, and personalities surrounding the battles and paying particular attention to the Second Battle of El Alamein.

Published: November 2017 ISBN: 9780994147301
Author: Glyn Harper
Hardback: 152 x 229mm. 264 pages. $45

New Zealand Between the Wars

From the depths of the Great Depression to the bright promise of the Welfare State, in a series of expert chapters this book shows how the interwar decades transformed New Zealand society, setting New Zealand firmly on its modern course.

Published: October 2017
ISBN: 9780994136367
Editor: Rachael Bell
Trade paperback: 234 x 153mm. 352 pages. $45

Fearless

During the Great War, New Zealanders were keen participants in the new field of military aviation. Close to 850 men, and a small number of women, from the Empire's southernmost dominion sought positions in the British and Australian air services. This book tells their unique and extraordinary untold story.

Longlisted for the 2018 Ockham New Zealand Book Awards

Free to Be Children

Registered clinical psychologist Robyn Salisbury seeks the wisdom of those who have devoted many years, each in their own domain, to working with child sexual abuse. Driven by Salisbury's wish to challenge abused children's invisibility and abusive adolescent's and adult's power, this book makes a major and unique contribution to understanding how we can best tackle the tragedy of child sexual abuse as a nation, and how urgent it is that we do.

NEW Published: March 2020 ISBN: 9780995123007
Editor: Robyn Salisbury
Trade paperback: 234 x 153mm. 312 pages. $39.99

We Are Here

A unique and different atlas of New Zealand, this mix of graphs, maps and illustrations is both beautiful and enlightening. It tells us where we are, here, in 2019. Each stunning graphic answers a question: Who visits us? How many fish are in the sea? Where do our cats go to at night? Essays by some of New Zealand's best thinkers complete the package.

NEW Published: October 2019 ISBN: 9780994141538
Authors: Chris McDowall and Tim Denee
Hardback: 290 x 235mm. 240 pages. $70

Heartland Strong

The decline of our small towns and loss of population is a long-running concern in provincial New Zealand. In this breakthrough book, a range of experts looks at how rural communities can build resilience and maintain and strengthen their economic and social fabric. With useful case studies and proven policy suggestions.

Published: April 2019 ISBN: 9780995109599

Trade paperback: 234 x 153mm. 312 pages. $39.99

Precarity

Leading UK economist Guy Standing has referred to the precariat as a class-in-the-making. This important book moves beyond the world of labour to identify and illustrate other forms of precarity in New Zealand, including the lack of opportunities for cultural expression and the struggle to be safe.

Published: September 2017 ISBN: 9780994141514
Editors: Shiloh Groot, Clifford van Ommen, Bridgette Masters-Awatere and Natasha Tassell-Matamua
Trade paperback: 234 x 153mm. 272 pages. $39.99

Tūrangawaewae: Identity and belonging in Aotearoa New Zealand

What is a New Zealander? How do we understand what makes New Zealand complex and unique? And what creates a sense of belonging and identity? This book underpins and illuminates Massey University's innovative BA paper, but is much more than a companion to the lectures.

Published: May 2017 ISBN: 9780994136374
Editors: Trudie Cain, Ella Kahu and Richard Shaw
Limpbound: 230 x 163mm. 288 pages. $50

The Treaty on the Ground

It's over 175 years since the signing of the Treaty of Waitangi. At times they've been years of conflict and bitterness, but there have also been remarkable gains and positive changes that have made New Zealand a distinct nation. This timely book brings together key thinkers on Treaty issues, who take a well-informed look back and also give a considered view of the road that lies ahead.

Published: February 2017 ISBN: 9780994130051

Editors: Rachael Bell, Margaret Kawharu, Michael Belgrave, Kerry Taylor and Peter Meihana

Trade paperback: 234 x 153mm. 328 pages. $39.99

Rebooting the Regions

Loss of jobs, loss of young people, the ageing demographic, the apparently irresistible magnet of Auckland . . . The economic fortunes of New Zealand's regions are of great concern to politicians, the business community, schools, employers — and indeed most citizens. What is the dynamic at work here? Is there a remedy? Is there a silver lining?

Published: September 2016 ISBN: 9780994130037

Editor: Paul Spoonley

Trade paperback: 234 x 153mm. 256 pages. $39.99
