WHAT DID WE DO?

For many kids, it's hard to imagine life before computers and the internet. Travel back in time with this exciting series to find out where people got the news, how they communicated with friends, and what they did for fun. Easy-to-read text and historical photographs give readers an overview of common technology from the past, while each book's final chapter explores how life has changed since then.

THE MOST EXCITING TEAMS AND HOTTEST STARS OF YOUR FAVORITE SPORTS

Now they had to get past the third-ranked Tar Heels to reach the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) tournament title game.

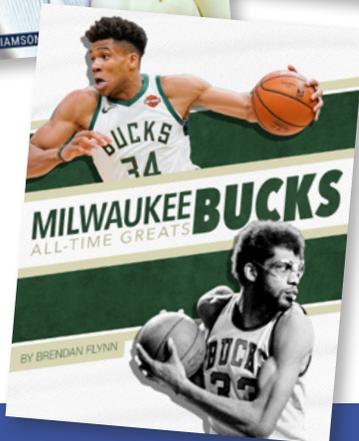

The score was close in the second half. North Carolina led 73-72 with 35 seconds left. Williamson dribbled toward the hoop and attempted a layup. The ball bounced off the rim. Players from both teams jumped for the rebound. Williamson emerged and rattled the ball out of the air. He tipped the ball back toward the hoop. This time, the ball went in.

Williamson's shot gave Duke the lead for good. The Blue Devils defeated their

FOLLOWING IT UP
A day after the North Carolina game, Duke played in the ACC tournament final against Florida State. Williamson scored 21 points, more than any other Blue Devils player. Duke won the game 73-63 to claim the tournament championship. Williamson earned the tournament's most valuable player (MVP) for his performance.
